

Roman cements for architectural restoration – workshop of ROCARE project

25th May 2012, 9.00 A.M.

The Kubicki Arcades, The Royal Castle in Warsaw

INVITATION

RENOVA
sp. z o.o.

Atelier of Conservation and Restoration of Historic Monuments is pleased to invite Mrs. / Mr.

.....

at the conference entitled

“Roman cements for architectural restoration”

which will be held on 25 May 2012
in Kubicki Arcades in Royal Castle in Warsaw.

Stefan Grabowski
President of the Board

We kindly ask you to confirm your attendance by Saturday, 19th May 2012 by sending an e-mail at info@renova.waw.pl Please do not forget to give your full name.

Programme:

9:00

Dr Przemysław Mrozowski, Deputy Director of Science, Education, Museum and Collections, Royal Castle in Warsaw
Opening of the conference.

9:15

Prof. Johannes Weber, Universität für angewandte Kunst, Vienna
Roman cement – forgotten historic binder of Europe’s built heritage.
EU research projects ROCEM and ROCARE.

10:00

Prof. Roman Kozłowski, Polish Academy of Sciences, Cracow
Roman cement mortars: binding mechanism, characteristics and conservation problems.

10:30

Dr Grzegorz Adamski, Institute of Ceramics and Building Materials, Cracow
Roman cement production technology and its application in conservation of architectural monuments.

11:00 – 11:30

coffee break

11:30

Jacek Olesiak, Remmers Poland
Roman cement – selected conservation sites.

12:00

Maciej Czyński, Renova sp. z o.o.
Arcade wall in Mazowiecka street in Warsaw
– conservation of roman cement – case study.

12:30 – 14:00

Practical demonstration of using roman cement mortars.

14:00

Conclusion of the conference in Royal Castle (panel discussion).

15:00

Meeting nearby the Arcade wall in Mazowiecka 11A street in Warsaw.
Seat of The Union of Polish Artists (ZPAP).